

when planning for removal or relocation of FM broadcast repeaters, there are a lot more listeners and appreciative people than first appears. Please consider the listeners in the remote areas of Alaska that have limited access to faith-based broadcasts to encourage people to drive-on specifically in a heavy alcohol saturated society.